The Youth Board Representative will attend all board meetings (virtual; approximately 6 per year) and provide insight and guidance on the direction and governance of the choir as a non-profit organization.

Ideal candidates will have a background in choral music and previous leadership experience with community or campus organizations/clubs. The position is ideal for someone interested in gaining experience working with non-profit organizations and community leadership.

Note that applicants to the Assistant Conductor and Choral Scholar positions can be considered for this role as well.

Your letter may be addressed to Patrick Murray, artistic director, and Richard Corner, board chair. Letters of interest may be submitted to info@choramica.ca. If you are applying for one of the other Young Artist positions, you may also indicate your interest in this role in your materials for your other application. We will reach out to all interested applicants to discuss the role in greater detail.
